BULLETIN: MEETING # 2293

President Ray makes welcome Neha Chandan as a prospective Member to our club.
Welcome Neha.

Other Business: GM Feedback from other Service Clubs on the Combined Services Dinner has been nothing but positive, an amazing night had by all. Well, done again Glenn and Joylene Mitchell for all their work.

DG Jeff Neale Presentation: 84 Clubs in the District with a strong team within.

Brian Kretschmer acknowledged for his hard work within his district

The District has club ranging in size from as little as 6 to 140 Members

President Shekhar Mehta message is to all Clubs is for every member to bring one , as the member ship in the third world countries is expanding ,but in our countries, it is decreasing, that is because of the need in those countries is high for help.

Rotary Clubs need to do more community service projects which will inspire people to join Rotary. There have been different types of Rotary Clubs set up now for example E-Club Satellite clubs ,corporate clubs. Offering a variety of ways for people to attend Rotary.

District Governors web site is advertising projects that other clubs are doing. Public Image, advertise your club when out doing projects in the community

Jenny Neale Presentation: Invitation to the National Wine Centre on the 9th of March in recognition of International Women's Day with a Guest speaker : Dr Trudi Lin.

All Kid's Project was formed by Paul Otto and John George from St peters Rotary Club and is a project for the Ream commune in Cambodia, to assist kids with a variety of educational programs from Kindergarten, Primary school ,and Secondary levels. The primary aim is to see that all children have access to schooling.
